lyes about one mile east of Woodstock, was destroyed by fire last Saturday ight a few minutes after 9 o'clock. The origin of the fire is anknown. Mrs. Bender and daughter had put their driving notse in the stable at 9 o'clock and put the buggy on the barn floor. They had | no light. Miss Georgie says that she closed the sliding barn door. When the fire was discovered, a few minutes later, he barn door had been slided back about two feet. When first seen the hay in the now and the straw stack were iblaze and the flames extended far above the barn. It was impossible even to enter the building, and property con sisting of three horses, three cows, bin der, mower, drill, hay rake, three harows, plows, buggy, wagon and harness, 5 tons of hay, 64 bushels of corn, 2 tons of mill feed, a few bushels of wheat and all his fodder were consumed. A num her of people answered the alarm and by their efforts saved the corn crib and contents consisting of his crop of corn nd some other articles. There was an
